

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with pleasure that we recommend to you the services of David G. Schertzing & Builders and its owner, David Schertzing.

We recently found a need to remodel our home to accommodate an ill relative who will be coming to reside with us. We interviewed three contractors and decided that we were most comfortable with Dave. It was a good decision.

Dave worked with us on design and cost and his suggestions were very helpful. He is not an individual who is out to push the "pricey" but rather is there to offer expertise in getting you to your comfort level. He possesses integrity; he is hard-working and he is reliable.

We could not believe how organized he is – from trucks showing up with materials, to sub-contractors showing up to complete their phase of the job. Our home was in good condition every night when he left and the clean-up when the entire job was completed was minimal. Dave is always accessible and keeps you apprised of the stage of the job and the time frame. He was very willing to re-do something if we changed our minds after the initial "run."

There is no doubt in our mind that if we need any future work in the areas in which he specializes, David Schertzing will be the first one we call. We were very pleased and would highly recommend him.

We would be glad to answer any questions or share any information with anyone considering using David G. Schertzing & Builders. Our phone is (517) 321-3509.

Sincerely,

Anthony and Sharon Conti
