In regards to David G. Schertzing Builders, Inc., I would highly recommend David as a builder for your project. He did a makeover kitchen for me. David had ideas that I had not thought of and he let me know when things I wanted wouldn't work. He kept right on time according to the schedule he gave me. David would call me when materials were not in and he would let me know when they arrived. He worked well with my son who asked many questions, was very friendly, and cleaned up every day when he finished his work. David is a man of faith, he was honest, and has a lot of integrity and work ethic. He also kept me under budget; that was appreciated. I would hire David again if I do another remodeling project. PS: I think my dog missed him when the job was finished. Thanks David.
