To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of David Schertzing, whom I have known for the past nine years. As a residential builder and contractor, Dave has built two homes for me, a single family home and a condominium. As a result, I can personally attest to the high level of workmanship and professionalism that Dave adheres to as a home builder. The homes that he has built for me have been beautiful and extremely well built, reflecting Dave's commitment to high quality construction and excellence. This commitment does not end when construction is completed, because Dave consistently stands behind his work and goes to great lengths to ensure that his customers are satisfied with their new homes. This dedication to his craft is also a reflection of Dave's personal character. He is an extremely honest and ethical person who treats everyone with the utmost respect. These qualities, along with his consistently positive outlook on life, make Dave a pleasure to work with.

I believe that all of Dave's qualities, both as a professional builder and as a person, will serve him well in any profession he chooses to pursue. I therefore recommend him without hesitation. Please free to call me at (517) 241-6054 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
