

Sandy Armbrustmacher recommends David G. Schertzing Builders, Inc.

When I was considering remodeling my house I, as a single woman with absolutely no knowledge of construction, didn't have a clue who I could trust with this project. Thankfully, I talked to a couple of people who had worked with Dave and highly recommended him for my remodel. I am so thankful I listened to them and hired him to do the work. Dave and his crew were absolutely wonderful to deal with and they did a beautiful job. My house looks spectacular! What I really appreciated was the fact that never once did Dave roll his eyes at me when I added yet "one more thing" to the long list of things to do after he started the work. He really was a peach to work with!!
